THURSDAY NOVEMBER 15, 1900
ELECTION METHODS HONORABLE AND PURE.

The feelings and prejudices brought to the surface in our minds when engaged in contention will in time disappear when the stimulating cause is removed. When we have returned to a normal condition of mind, we are in a position to review with less prejudice and more truth the causes that may have contributed to our defeat during the contention. It has been claimed, without any reason, that money was used by F. G. Newlands at the late election to corrupt voters and to secure to himself the majority he received of the votes polled in the State. If there is any truth in the claim there should be some evidence of it on the face of the returns, but there is not anything that would lead the most critical to such a conclusion, when the returns are examined in the light of facts.

There seems to be a tendency in the human mind to provide a cause for its shortcomings and defects, which is right, provided the cause furnished is truthful and honest; but the tendency is to provide a cause as an excuse for its weakness, without regard to truth, or regard to honesty, which has a degrading tendency, and in the end humiliates.

There was some parade made during the summer over the secret causes there were at work to defeat Newlands, which had a disturbing effect upon some of his friends. The threats made came from a source which led to a belief in the possibility of the use of unfair means to secure his defeat. It was well known that no moral consideration would prevent the use of corrupt appliances to secure his defeat by those who made the mysterious threats about overwhelming conditions which were then in preparation to annihilate Newlands and his friends.

These threats were many, and from a source where purity in politics has been unknown, that made for a time an impression on the public mind. These threats were made so often that the repetition became irksome to those who heard them, but they continued to be made, until it was concluded that those who threatened had lost their cunning and were in a position like the fellow about whom it was said, "He doth protest too much, my Lord." The claim of corruption comes from the same source that the threats came from, which makes the charge of corruption self explanatory.

There are not many men living who have defended more persons charged with crime than the writer, which practice brought him in contact with some bad characters which furnished opportunity to observe the worst side of the human mind. He has found, as a result of observation and thought, that all men possess like faculties in degree. The more honest are possessed of less cunning and secretiveness than a thief, but these faculties are in a more or less active relation to life in all men. Cunning and secretiveness make their appearance very often in falsehood, which is intended to cover or to excuse an immoral or a criminal act.

When the act is known or is admitted some excuse is furnished for its commission. If the immoral or the criminal act consists of a threat some excuse is furnished for making it and if it fails in its accomplishment some excuse is furnished for its miscarriage which excuse is more often a lie than the truth. The threats made to defeat Newlands were not accomplished, they miscarried and an excuse is furnished for the miscarriage according to the demand there is upon those who made the threats to annihilate him politically.

The excuse furnished for a failure to defeat him is the use of money by him to secure his election, which excuse like all excuses of this kind is untrue. There has not been an election in the State when the elective franchise was more pure upon the side opposed to the party of corrupt methods than it was at the late election. The manhood intended to be and should be represented in and through citizenship was more to the front than at any time since the State became a rotten borough which was in its early existence as a commonwealth.

The people have reason to feel elevated over the purity of the elective franchise at the late election. A few such elections would deliver the State from its moth eaten blanket of rotten boroughism, which has covered it to the humiliation of every upright man in it. Those who charge corruption are members of the Charlie Wallace and Bill Stewart political system which in some measure may aid in explaining the charge against Newlands. Purity in the exercise of the elective franchise according to their ideals of election methods being impossible.

HAPPENINGS IN NEVADA

News of All the Counties in the State Clipped From Exchanges.

Elko county is next to Washoe county in voting population.
The Indian rabbit drive near Carson Sunday resulted in the killing of about 100 rabbits.

William Hy Doane, late Republican candidate for Justice of the Peace of Ormsby county, has filed papers asking for a recount. He was defeated by fifteen votes.

James Kisler, an old and respected resident, died yesterday morning at his home on south O street. He was well known and was connected with the grocery firm of Kisler & Batchelder for several years.

Monday three Pawnee chiefs from Oklahoma passed through Yerington en route to Smith valley to visit Jack Wilson. The party consisted of Captain McPherson, Night Chief and Leading Paw.—Carson News.

Last Thursday night an attempt was made to wreck a train, presumably No. 4, for the purpose of robbery, about four and one-half miles east of Humboldt House, close to the scene of the robbery of two years ago last July.

Considerable excitement was caused the other day by the report that the ballot box, tally sheets, etc., of Lovelock precinct, had been stolen. They were recovered and it turns out that they were simply concealed in a safe place for the time being.—News

This is an opportunity for the business men of Reno to become acquainted with the people of a large and productive region tributary to this city.

Church Bazar.

The battenberg, point-lace ties, ladies' handkerchiefs, dolls for Christmas and all kinds of fancy work which the St. Margaret's Society will display for sale Friday afternoon and evening, in the vestry of the Congregational church, are dainty as well as useful. Refreshments will be served from 3 to 11 p. m., and the program of the evening will be delightful. Miss Langan, Miss Lion, Miss McCormack, Miss Hepburn Michaels, Miss Peterson, Miss Shier, Miss Hall and Mr. Tobin are among the talent. Everybody cordially invited. 2t

Decided Against the Road.

MINES AND MINING

News of Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

Silver 65¢, lead $4, Copper, $16 75.

Sixteen men employed in the Nevada company's mine and mill at Berlin, Nye county, were discharged the other day for attending a dance against orders.

The Dexter has a nice lot of gold bullion and gold dust in the hands of the express company, the proceeds of which will be applied to the dividend fund.—Salt Lake Tribune.

A new mining incorporation has been organized at Newport, Rhode Island, to operate in Eagle valley district. It is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia. The mining claims in the incorporation are the Midnight, Ince, Everett, Reliance and Resolute. The incorporation is known as the Newport-Nevada mining company.

An "Independent" Candidate.

Now that the ornery war is over it has leaked out that a successful candidate, nominated by one of the regular political parties in this county, received a letter asking him to attend a central committee meeting and, incidentally, to put up so much as an assessment.

Back came the reply: "I won't attend the meeting and I won't put up a cent. If the voters of Washoe county don't think I am the right man for the office to which I have been nominated, they can elect whom they god darned please."

Subsequent events proved that the people thought he was the right man in the right place.

Take Notice.

George Teasland, sexton for Truckee Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F., desires all who contemplate moving bodies of deceased relatives from the old cemetery to the new one to notify him at once through W. Sanders. o18-1m student of Carson, lectured before the general assembly yesterday. The gymnasium was crowded. Mr. Quong's subject was "China and Its Language."

He said that there was a popular misapprehension as to the difficulty of acquiring this language. "The elements can be learned in three months, and one can become a fluent talker in two years."

Mr. Quong paid high tribute to the attainments of Li Hong Chang, speaking of him as the Bismarck of the Orient.

Bound Over.

Charles Kantry, charged with grand larceny, appeared in Judge Linn's court yesterday for examination. He was defended by David Leishman.
District Attorney Williams conducted the prosecution.

George Perkins, in whose favor it was drawn upon the Bank of Nevada, San

THE LOCAL
PROSPECTS

What the Prospectors and Miners Are Doing in the Hills Around Reno.

Rumor has it that certain mining property in this vicinity will soon change hands.

H. J. Darling has been elected a trustee of the Reno Smelting and Milling Company.

The prospectors have all returned to their claims in the mountains and will seek the precious metals until next election.

The Fairview galena mine at Cold Springs is producing ore that is nearly pure lead. It carries good gold and silver values.

Four men are at work on the Edwards-Norton mine on Persimmon. The force will be increased as soon as Pierre report Edwards arrives from the east.

THE FIRE-
MEN'S BALL.

Now that the excitement of election is over, the people of our riverside burg are asking one another "What is next on the tapis?" The answer is "Why, the fireboys' bal masque, of course."

The boys are making strenuous efforts to outdo any of their previous attempts to entertain the public, as witness the handsome prizes on exhibition in the windows of R. Herz & Bro. and the Frank Golden Jewelry Co. and see for yourself what inducements they offer. They are sparing no expense to make this the event of the season, as they have secured the services of H. Anderson, the famous cos-tumer of San Francisco, who promises to bring the most elegant and costly costumes ever brought to Reno. Reserve your attempts to provide a homemade costume till these arrive and our word for it you will not regret it.

Thanksgiving night is the one night in the year when, after the hearty feasting of the day, you need a chance to work off your surplus energy and the fire ladders' ball is the place to do it. Buy a ticket and help the boys out as they are contemplating the purchase of a set of uniforms to protect themselves and their clothing from fire and water, with the proceeds. Remember the date, Thanksgiving night.

First Meeting of the New Board.

A meeting of the newly elected trustees of the Reno Smelting and Milling Company was held yesterday afternoon in the office of O. J. Smith.

The following officers were chosen:
Oscar J. Smith, president; H. M.
Martin, vice president; O. C. Ayres, secretary; Washoe County Bank, treasurer.

It was decided to proceed without delay in getting the smelter ready for operations. It is expected that copper pigs will be cast with monotonous regularity a month from now.

Astounded The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of the Bennetteville, S. O., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electro Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver."

For indigestion, loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50 cents a bottle. S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Got Run in.

A couple of brawny pugilists put on the gloves in a saloon last night and were having a merry scrap, to the delight of the spectators, when the officers appeared and ran in the contestants.

They Struck It Rich.

It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as S. J. Hodgkinson secured the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the wonderful remedy that has startled the world by its marvelous cures. The furor of enthusiasm over it has boomed their business, as the demand for it is immense. They give free trial bottles to sufferers, and positively guarantee it to cure Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price 50cts. and $1.00
